Corporate volunteering

Most of us are able to choose the way we live our lives.

We're free to make decisions about where we want to work, live and socialise, and we're free to decide how we want these spaces to look and feel.

People with learning disabilities don't always have this freedom.

Our Volunteer Force Programme provides unique opportunities for teams of corporate volunteers to make a real difference, helping to enhance spaces and give freedom and choice back to the people we support.

"The team enjoyed the experience and felt a huge sense of achievement, working alongside the people supported at the farm. By the time we left we were already discussing ways in which we could help even more."

Catherine Correia, Burges Salmon

About Brandon Trust

Brandon Trust is an award-winning learning disabilities charity supporting over 1,200 adults and children with learning disabilities and autism across the South of England.

Providing a wide range of person-centred services, we believe all people with learning disabilities should be able to find their place in their local community and live a life of freedom with fewer limitations.

Our motto is 'Live free' and it's our mission to set people free.

This means giving everyone with learning disabilities the chance to be the person they want to be and live the life they want to live.

If you want to find out more about how your business or organisation can make a positive difference to our work, contact Erin Lawton on erin.lawton@brandontrust.org or call 0117 906 2924.
