

Community Circles Facilitator – Could this be you?

What do people appreciate about you?

You are:

- Very approachable.
- Willing to make a positive contribution to your local community.
- A creative problem solver.
- A great listener and communicator.
- Trustworthy and responsible.
- A self-motivated self-starter who is enthusiastic about making a positive contribution to your community.

What is important to you?

- People! Meeting and connecting with different people and developing positive and trusting relationships.
- An opportunity to improve your own well being, whilst learning and developing new skills.
- Being able to problem-solve and generate creative solutions.
- You believe a group of people coming together can make a positive difference to support someone in a specific situation.

How will we support you?

- You will receive both online and face-to-face training delivered by a Community Circles connector.
- You will be supported at your first three circle meetings by a connector.
- You will be linked to a buddy and mentor who will offer support with anything you need help with in the circle, and provide a space to share ideas and learning.
- You will be invited to join our Groupsite and Facebook group for facilitators, where you will be able to seek advice and support from other facilitators and members of staff.
