	grant funded for three years by Safer Bristol and led by S.A.R.I. (formerly Support Against Racist Incidents - now Stand Against Racism and Inequality) with local providers: Brandon Trust, Bristol Mind and the Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender Forum Bristol are to work together to deliver hate crime support services for Bristol. To be known as BHCS this partnership of charities all champion the rights for communities in Bristol who have been disproportionately targeted by hate crime. This service is for victims of any type of hate crime including racist, faith-based, disablist, homophobic, transphobic, age-based or gender based. Nearly 1,600 incidents of hate crime were reported in Bristol last year and many go unreported. Victims will receive specialist advice, and support will be tailored to individual needs and experiences. Plans include a new website, a freephone reporting and advice line 24-hours-a-day and drop in at various access points throughout Bristol.
