Disability Cornwall (DIAL)

Information and advice are usually available on: welfare benefits community care equipment independent living mobility and transport discrimination holidays and much more.

Safeguarding

Our Disability Information and Advice Line (DIAL) service can support people via the telephone who are being subjected to abuse or discrimination via to know their rights and maintain their dignity, respect and independence. We cannot take on individual cases but can ensure the person concerned knows what support is available to them.

Disability Cornwall is aware there is a lack of awareness surrounding the issue of abuse of disabled people. We are responsive to the needs of our members, staff and trustees and will, when appropriate and with consent, assist anyone through an issue of potential abuse by holding a well-
